The WEEKLY REGISTER.

LONDON, SATURDAY, August 7, 1731. NUMB. LXIX.

We are oblig'd to poſtpone the Continuation of laſt Saturday's Subject on Account of the following Letter, which being on a Subject of more Importance, demands a more immediate Publication.

The STATE of the NAVY, a publick Proof of the Wiſdom and Integrity of the preſent Adminiſtration, and a full Anſwer to the Craftſman's inſolent Defiances to produce one Example of either.

To the AUTHOR of the WEEKLY REGISTER.

SIR,

SOME Gentlemen of late have taken it into their Heads to believe that Railing againſt every Meaſure of the Government is the only true Symptom of Patriotiſm, and Diſaffection the beſt Foundation of Popularity: To this Purpoſe they make it their Buſineſs to be Spies on the Miniſtry, to lie in wait for Miſcarriages, and exaggerate every unavoidable Misfortune; to attend the Publick like Vultures on an Army, to find their Account in Calamity, and make tragical Events their Prey; to become Eves-Droppers to the Common-wealth, always on the Watch for Secrets, and always betraying them for the Sake of Miſchief only. Theſe are to be conſider'd as State Undertakers, who hourly long for the Death of the Adminiſtration, that they may grow rich by its Funerals. If the State is in Health, they complain the Badneſs of the Times will be their Ruin; if ſick, they offer themſelves to be her Phyſician, and bleſs God for ſuch a Providence in their Favour.——Thus are their whole Lives a Scene of Peeviſhneſs and Jealouſy, ever uneaſy, and ever without Occaſion: they are continually deſcribing the Danger of our Condition, but never adminiſtring a Cure; they are always blaming whatever they imagine wrong, without the Ingenuity of once applauding what is apparently right.—— When did the Craftſman or his Adherents do Juſtice to any one Virtue of the preſent Adminiſtration, or congratulate their Country on enjoying any new Advantage? 'Tis true, ſuch a Proceeding would be foreign to their Deſign, would be no Ways a-kin to their Kind of Patriotiſm; to find Fault is their Province, not to commend; they are to excite the People to Terror and Uneaſineſs, but never be inſtrumental to their Peace and Satisfaction.——Let me preſume then to take up the other Side of the Queſtion, and open the Eyes of my Countrymen to their own Happineſs; to lead them ſelf-evidently into Truth, and make them ſenſible of the Bleſſings they are perſuaded to regard ſo little; this is Patriotiſm indeed. What I write, I ſhall feel my Subject will give me Pleaſure in the Purſuit, and I ſhall more than ſhare in the Satisfaction I point out to others.——My Principles are benevolent to Mankind, and whatever I advance, the Sincerity of my Heart will juſtify. I wiſh Mr. D'Anvers could ſay the ſame, that we might condemn his Ignorance rather than his Deceit.

It is agreed on by all Parties, that the Navy is of the utmoſt Conſequence to the Conſtitution; that 'tis the natural Strength of Great Britain; her ſureſt Refuge, her favourite Defence; that 'tis the Guardian of her Trade, and the Support of her Glory; that 'tis the Bulwark of our Shores, and the Terror of our Neighbours; that 'tis Sovereign of the Main, and extends its Influence where-ever the Winds and Waves can bear it: This is the joint Opinion of the whole Nation, and every Individual lays it down as one of the firſt Maxims of his Policy. Had therefore the Miniſtry which has ſo often been arraign'd, and ſo often condemn'd for the greateſt Abſurdities, and the moſt notorious Corruptions; had this Miniſtry, I ſay, ever neglected this important Point, or miſapply'd the Sums that were appointed for its Support; had it ever ſuffer'd the Navy to have decay'd in our Ports, or the Stores to be exhauſted without a Supply; had it permitted our Neighbours to grow ſtrong, while we ourſelves were unable to prevent it; had it diſcourag'd the brave and gallant Seamen, and ſlept over a Length of Indolence and Abuſe; had they been guilty of one Side and remiſs on the other, there would have been real Opportunity for general Complaint, and he that had been loudeſt in Diſcontent would have deſerv'd moſt from the Publick.——But on the contrary, the very Miniſtry that has been ſo unjuſtly arraign'd, and ſo arbitrarily condemn'd; that very Miniſtry has made the Fleet the continual Object of the greateſt Generoſity and tendereſt Regard: Not a Year has paſt over without ſome Reſolution in its Favour, and not a Day without ſome Thought for its Advantage.——Hence our maritime Power is not only the greateſt in the World, but has been greater under their Conduct than ever it was before: Hence we have been able to awe both Ends of the World at the ſame Time, and frighten the remoteſt Princes into a Dread of the Force they could not withſtand.——Hence we are more than a Match for all Europe beſide, and while even our trading Neighbours have conniv'd at the Decline of their Fleets, ours have flouriſh'd into a greater Perfection than ever, and are fitter than ever for Service.——But as theſe Aſſertions may be thought too general, I'll deſcend to ſome Particulars, and demonſtrate that Truth is inſeparable from either. ——In the firſt Place, let us take a Survey of our Docks, Yards, and Harbours; where we ſhall find the Ships of War laid up in Time of Peace and Inactivity with the greateſt Care, and under the ſtricteſt Inſpection imaginable. All their Decays are watch'd with ſuch Vigilance, that 'tis no ſooner diſcover'd than prevented; old Ships are repairing and rebuilding continually, that the whole Complement may be always compleat, and always ready for Service. ——Neither are the Ships alone ſo critically obſerv'd, but all the Materials for Building, all the Stores for their Equipment are continually providing, and conſtantly preſerv'd for every Exigence whatever.——Both theſe Particulars are committed to the Care of proper Officers, under the beſt Regulations, that nothing may be neglected or abus'd for Want of proper Cheques to correct the Conduct of the whole.——Seamen themſelves have been courted into the Service by all the Lenity, and all the Encouragement imaginable; it has even been made their Intereſt to enter on Board the King's Ships, that no one might ſay he was deny'd a Benefit, or receiv'd an Injury.——In ſhort, ſuch Favours were never ſhewn them before, they were never treated with ſuch Mildneſs, never render'd ſo independent of any Cruelty from their Officers, or ſo fairly entitled to Advancement according to their Merits. Let us add, they were never paid with ſuch Certainty and Exactneſs, with ſo little Impoſition and Delay. Their ſhort Allowance-Money, Smart-Money, &c. is as ſure as their Pay, and as regularly diſcharg'd.

If we examine the Laws of Preferment among the Officers, we ſhall find 'twas never on ſo juſt and equitable a Baſis before; all Gentlemen are to be firſt Volunteers, and then Midſhip-men, before they have any Claim to be Officers, and muſt ſerve in both thoſe Capacities ſuch a certain Number of Years to qualify them for Commiſſions; after this they are to paſs the ſevereſt Examination as to their Abilities and Services, and muſt have their Certificates in Form before they are allowed to paſs.——By this Means none but regular Seamen can ever be preferr'd, and conſequently the Fleet will always be commanded with Equity and Honour.

But this is not all; the Ships, the Stores, the Men, the Officers, are not only ſo ſtrictly diſciplin'd, and ſo admirably provided for, but even their Families are conſider'd, and maintain'd when any of them die in the Service of their Country.——By a late Propoſal from the Lords of the Admiralty to the Seamen and Commanders of the Fleet, ſuch a voluntary Proportion is to be deducted from their Pay, as will anſwer this Purpoſe without any additional Charge in procuring or receiving it; and this is done to prevent the unfortunate Circumſtances that ſo many Families fall into on loſing the Perſon that was their only Support: A Thought of ſo much Generoſity and Humanity that it reflects the higheſt Honour upon its Authors, and demonſtrates the moſt compaſſionate Regard of the Government for the Naval Intereſt in general.

Now let us caſt an Eye over Europe, and be curiouſly inquiſitive to find out any Eſtabliſhment like this; let us inquire diligently if any Diſcipline is ſo perfect, if any Encouragement is ſo great, if any parental Care is ſo eminent. ——We know the Search is in vain, and the Compariſon in either of thoſe Particulars would be as much in our Favour as in the Fleets they relate to.——Again let us look back into our own Annals, let us examine whether there is any Reſemblance between our Conduct and that of our Fore-fathers, and we ſhall be forc'd to aſcribe the Honour of the Review to ourſelves.——But what will our modern Patriots advance, when moſt of the preſent Regulations ſhall appear to reſult from the Wiſdom and Goodneſs of the Miniſtry they condemn; when the whole Courſe of their Conduct in an Affair of this Importance has been ſo irreproachable, and ſo incorrupt; when their Enemies have never once been honeſt enough to give them the Applauſe it deſerv'd; when this peculiar Excellency ſhall be quoted among a Thouſand others, in Oppoſition of their Doctrines, and to the utter Confuſion of their continued Aſſertions; when it ſhall be prov'd to be of a Piece with the whole of their Adminiſtration, and Sir R—— W——'s Character demand as much Honour in the Treaſury, as Lord T——n's in the Navy?

N. B. As the Craftſman has frequently call'd upon the Friends of the Adminiſtration to produce any ſingle Proof of their Services to their Country, or any one national Point that has been invariably purſued; I venture to challenge Mr. Oldcaſtle's whole Minutes to point out a greater than this remarkable Care of the Navy among the moſt favour'd Æras of former Reigns.——This is a national Point, a Point that has been moſt judiciouſly founded, and moſt ſtedfaſtly purſued; this calls upon him to be faithful to his Promiſe for once, and throw up the Cauſe he can no longer defend.—This is a Specimen of that Vigilance, that Concern, that Wiſdom, which he has ſo often undervalued, and ſo often abus'd; and this, among Numbers of other Facts, will in the End cover him and his Aſſociates with Shame and Confuſion.

A compleat REGISTER of all the curious Receipts that have been lately publiſh'd in the Daily Journal, for the Cure of many grievous and dangerous Diſorders; fit for the Uſe of all Families whatever, and collected for their Benefit.

A well experienc'd Receipt for deſtroying of Buggs.

TAKE of the higheſt rectified Spirit of Wine, (viz. Lamp Spirits) that will burn all away dry, and leave not the leaſt Moiſture behind, half a Pint; newly diſtilled Oil, or Spirit of Turpentine, half a Pint; mix them together, and break into it, in ſmall Bits, half an Ounce of Camphire, which will diſſolve it in a few Minutes; ſhake them well together, and with a Spunge, or a Bruſh dipt in ſome of it, wet very well the Bed and Furniture wherein thoſe Vermin harbour and breed, and it will infallibly kill and deſtroy both them and their Nits, altho' they ſwarm ever ſo much: But then the Bed or Furniture muſt be well and thoroughly wet with it, (the Duſt upon them being firſt bruſhed and ſhook off) by which Means it will neither ſtain, ſoil, or in the leaſt hurt the fineſt Silk or Damask Bed that is. The Quantity here ordered of this curious neat white Mixture, (which coſts but about a Shilling) will rid any one Bed whatſoever, tho' it ſwarms with Buggs: Do but touch a live Bugg with a Drop of it, and you will find it to die inſtantly. If any Bugg or Buggs ſhould happen to appear after once uſing it, it will only be for Want of well wetting the Lacing, &c. of the Bed, or the Foldings of the Linings or Curtains near the Rings, or the Joints or Holes in and about the Bed, Head-Board, &c. wherein the Buggs and Nits neſtle and breed, and then their being well wet all again with more of the ſame Mixture, which dries in as faſt as you uſe it, pouring ſome of it into the Joints and Holes where the Spunge or Bruſh cannot reach, will never fail abſolutely to deſtroy them all. Some Beds that have much Wood-work, can hardly be thoroughly cleared, without being firſt taken down; but others that can be drawn out, or that you can get well behind, to be done as it ſhould be, may.

Note, The Smell this Mixture occaſions, will be all gone in two or three Days, which yet is very wholeſome, and to many People agreeable. You muſt remember always to ſhake the Mixture together very well, whenever you uſe it, which muſt be in the Day-time, not by Candle-light, leſt the Subtilty of the Mixture ſhould catch the Flame as you are uſing it, and occaſion Damage.

A Receipt for the Chin or Whooping Coughs.

TAKE dried Coltsfoot Leaves a good Handful, cut them ſmall, and boil them in a Pint of Spring Water, till half a Pint is boiled away; then take it off the Fire, and when it is almoſt cold, ſtrain it thro' a Cloth, ſqueezing the Herb as dry as you can; and then throw it away, and diſſolve in the Liquor an Ounce of brown Sugarcandy, finely powder'd, and then give the Child, (if it be about three or four Years old, and ſo in Proportion) one Spoonful of it, cold or warm, as the Seaſon proves, three or four Times a Day (or oftner, if the Fits of Coughing come frequently) till well; which will be in two or three Days, but it will preſently almoſt abate the Fits of Coughing. This Herb ſeems to be a Specifick for thoſe Sorts of Coughs, and indeed for all others, in old as well as young, for it has wonderfully eaſed them, when nothing elſe would do it, and greatly helps in Shortneſs of Breath; and in the Aſthma and Phthiſick he has not known any Thing exceed ſt; likewiſe in Waſtings or Conſumptions of the Lungs, it has been found of excellent Uſe, by its ſmooth, ſoftning, healing Qualities, even where there has been Spitting of Blood, and Rawneſs and Soreneſs of the Paſſages, with Hoarſeneſs, &c. in blunting the acrimonious Humours, which in ſuch Caſes are almoſt continually dripping upon them. It is to be queſtioned, whether for thoſe Purpoſes there is to be had, in the whole Materia Medica, a Medicine ſo innocent, ſo ſafe, and yet ſo pleaſant and effectual, or that can afford Relief ſo ſoon as this will. Grown People may make it ſtronger than for Children. If the Phyſician that communicates this, receives the Thanks of thoſe it helps, (which is all he deſires) he may this Way, by the Means of your Paper, aſſiſt the Publick in ſome other Particulars.

A Receipt for the Worms which breed in human Bodies.

IT is to be noted, that there are divers Sorts of Worms that breed in the Body, and take up their Reſidence therein, either in the Stomach or Bowels, and ſometimes near the Sphincter Ani, or Fundiment, and do often knit themſelves together, and appear like a Bag of Worms, and are ſuppoſed to be bred from the Ova or Eggs of thoſe Animals, ſwallowed down with the Food, and encouraged and fed by Viſcidities in the Paſſages; and according as they reſide, or have placed themſelves in the Body, the Symptoms and Complaints which ſuch People make, are different both in Kind and Degree: In ſome to occaſion Looſeneſſes, in others Coſtiveneſs, or frequent Deſires to go to Stool, but can't. In ſome to cauſe a fœtid or ſtinking Breath, which is a ſhrewd Sign of Worms; as is alſo a hard or inflated Belly, eſpecially in Children, with a voracious Appetite, an almoſt continual Thirſt, Feveriſhneſs by Fits, and an intermitting Pulſe, and glowing Cheeks. In ſome a Heavineſs or Pain in the Head, Startings in Sleep, with frightful terrifying Dreams. In ſome a Sleepineſs, repreſenting a Lethargy. In others a Nauſea, or Loathing of Food, with or without Motions to vomit. A Pain and Weight, with a Gnawing in the Stomach, Gripings and Rumblings in the Bowels, like the Cholick. In Children, a dry Cough, and oftentimes ſcreaming Fits, and Convulſions, with white Lips and white Urine; and in both Old and Young, a weakened or loſt Appetite, Giddineſs in the Head, Paleneſs of Countenance, with Faintings, and cold Sweats of a ſudden, Indigeſtions, Abatement of the Strength, and Falling away of Fleſh, as if dropping into a Conſumption, with many other Symptoms, but theſe the chief, which ever more or leſs, ſome or other of them, always affect, where Worms are the Cauſe; and for Remedy of which, the following Receipt may be depended on, and is very innocent as well as powerful and effectual, as every one, when they read what it is, will believe, and when they try it will find.

The Receipt is this,

Take Tops of Carduus, Tops of Centory, Roman Wormwood, and Chamomile, (all of them dried, and of the lateſt Year's Growth that you uſe them in) of each a ſmall Handful, cut them ſmall, and put them into an earthen Jar, or Pickling Pot, and pour upon them a Quart of Spring Water, cold; ſtir all about, and then tie the Pot over with a double Paper, and let it ſtand 48 Hours, opening and ſtirring it about five or ſix Times in that Space. At the End of 48 Hours, ſtrain it thro' a Cloth, ſqueezing the Herbs as dry as you can, which fling away, and of the Liquor, give to a Child from two to four or five Years old, Half a Spoonful, more or leſs, mixt with a Quarter of a Spoonful of Oil of Beech Nuts, every Morning, upon an empty Stomach, and to faſt for about an Hour after it, and alſo the ſame Doſe about four or five in the Afternoon, every Day for a Week or 10 Days together, by which Time, if the Caſe be Worms, and you make but Obſervation, you will find them come away, either dead or alive. Older Children muſt take more, in Proportion to their Ages, and grown Perſons, from three or four to ſix or eight Spoonfuls, or more, with always Half the Quantity of the ſaid Oil mixt with each Doſe, and it will keep the Body ſoluble, and ſometimes a little looſe. This Medicine has cured in ſuppoſed incurable Caſes, where it has proved at laſt to be from Worms, when neither Phyſician or Patient have before thought it to be ſo. But if it be not Worms, it cannot hurt, but may cure in Caſes ſimilar to Worms, eſpecially where the Stomach and Bowels are diſorder'd.

Note, The Beech Nut Oil may be had at moſt Oil Shops, and the Reaſon that that Oil, before any others, is adviſed, is, that it has a Property, as has been often tried, of killing Worms of itſelf, when Olive Oil and Oil of Almonds would not do it.

A Receipt for Colds, the Fountain from whence the moſt dangerous Diſeaſes uſually flow.

COLDS are allow'd by all to be the Fountains from whence the moſt dangerous Diſeaſes uſually flow, I ſhall make no Apology then for ſending you the following Remarks.

A Cold, as I take it, hath its Riſe from a Stoppage of the Pores, by the external Air; the Conſequences of which are, firſt, A Superfluity of internal Juices, (for inſenſible Perſpiration being ſtopt, thoſe Humours which uſed to paſs off that Way, are retained) and, ſecondly, A præternatural Heat, occaſion'd partly by the fermenting of the foremention'd Juices, and partly by the Stoppage of the Pores. Now it muſt be obſerved, that thoſe are the moſt refined and ſubtle Humours, that are carried off by Perſpiration, which being kept in, the Heat cauſeth them immediately to aſcend to the Head, where the cold Air that we draw in at our Noſtrils, condenſeth them to Rheum, and occaſioneth what we call a Stoppage in the Head, which gives Riſe to that vulgar Opinion of Colds being always taken at the Head, by Reaſon of that Part's being moſt affected: From the Head it diſtills to the Wind-Pipe, and being of a ſalt, acrimonious Nature, ſtimulates the Fibres ſo as to create a Coughing. In the Beginning of a Cold the Rheum is always very thin; but afterwards, the Heat evaporating the more humid Part, the Remainder thickens by Degrees, till at laſt it becomes a tough, black, ſlimy Phlegm.

So much for the Theory of a Cold; it is now Time to think of a Cure: And in the firſt Place, Evacuations are neceſſary, as they contribute towards carrying off the ſuperfluous peccant Matter, by which Means the unnatural Heat of the Blood will be aſſuaged: And of Evacuations, the three following are chiefly to be made Uſe of, viz. Sweating, Bleeding, and Purging, and of theſe the firſt is moſt preferable, as it more immediately ſtrikes at the very Foundation of the Diſtemper; for if a Cold is occaſion'd by the Loſs of inſenſible Perſpiration, the Recovery of it (which is procur'd by Sweating) will conſequently effect a Cure: Nor am I againſt the Uſe of Linctus's, Pectoral Apozems, &c. (to ſuch as can afford them) which ſerve to ſheath and blunt the ſalt Acrimony of the Juices, and are as grateful to the Patient, as a Draught of cold Water to a thirſty feveriſh Perſon: But I think ſuch Things are not intirely to be depended on; for, till ſuch Time as the Cauſe is taken away, the Effect is likely to ſubſiſt.

I have known the following Bolus cure ſeveral grown Perſons, at two or three Times taking, without the Help of Pectorals, who have had the Glands of their Throats, &c. ſo greatly inflamed, that they have almoſt loſt the Uſe of Speech.

The BOLUS.

Take of Venice Treacle, Half a Dram; Powder of Snake-Root, 12 Grains; Powder of Saffron, ſix Grains; Volatile Salt of Hartſhorn, four Grains; Syrup of Cloves, a ſufficient Quantity to make it into a Bolus. To be taken going to Reſt, drinking a large Draught of warm Mountain-Whey after it.

N. B. Thoſe who can't afford Mountain-Whey may drink Treacle-Poſſet.

To ſuch Conſtitutions as can't be provok'd to ſweat, opening a Vein, or a gentle Purge, will be of great Service.

P. S. The Diſeaſes which frequently proceed from Colds, are theſe, viz. Fevers, Pleuriſies, Rheumatiſms, Conſumptions, Ulcers, Coughs, Aſthmas, Phthiſicks, &c. moſt of which, as they are Effects from the ſame Cauſe, might have been prevented, if taken in the Beginning, by Sweating or Bleeding, or both.

A Receipt for the Cure of the Stone and Gravel, whether in the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder. The Ingredients which compound it are in their Prime.

TAKE Marſh-Mallow Leaves, the Herb Mercury, Saxifrage, and Pellitory of the Wall, of each, freſh gather'd, three Handfulls; cut them ſmall with a Pair of Sciſſars, and mix them together, and pound them in a clean Stone Mortar, with an Wooden Peſtle, till they come to a Maſh, then take them out, and ſpread them thin, in a broad glaz'd Earthen Pan, and let them lie, ſtirring them about once a Day, till they are thoroughly dry, (but not in the Sun) and then they are ready, and will keep good all the Year long. Of ſome of theſe Ingredients ſo dried, make Tea, as you do common Tea, with boiling-hot Water, as ſtrong as you like to drink it, but the ſtronger the better, and drink three, four, or more Tea-cups full of it, Blood-warm, ſweetned with coarſe Sugar, every Morning and Afternoon, putting into each Cup of it, at leaſt half a Spoonful, or rather more, of the expreſs'd Oil of Beech Nuts, freſh drawn, (which in this Caſe has been experienc'd to be vaſtly preferable to Oil of Almonds, or any other Oil) ſtirring them about together, and ſo to continue it for as long as you ſee Occaſion.

This Medicine, however ſimple ſoever it may ſeem to ſome, is yet a fine emollient Remedy, is perfectly agreeable to the Stomach (unleſs the Beech Oil be ſtale or rancid) and will be found to ſheathe, and ſoften the Aſperity of the Humours in general, particularly thoſe that generate the Gravel and Stone, and will relax and ſupple the Solids at the ſame Time: And it is well known by all Phyſicians, that emollient Medicines do lubricate, widen, and moiſten the Fibres, ſo as to relax them into their proper Dimenſions, without forcing the Parts, whereupon Obſtructions of the Reins and Urinary Paſſages, are opened, and by their cleanſing Properties, as is this Medicine, cleared of all Lodgments of ſandy Concretions, Gravel and paſſable Stones, and made to yield better to the Expulſion of whatever may plug or ſtop them up, and likewiſe takes away, as this does, all Heat and Difficulty of Urine and Stranguries, and withal, by its ſoft mucilaginous Nature, cools, and heals the Reins, Kidneys, and Bladder, giving preſent Eaſe in the Stone Cholick, breaks away Wind, and prevents its Return, as it always keeps the Bowels laxative.

SATURDAY, July 31.

YESTERDAY about three o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out in a common Brewhouſe in Bowl-Yard in Broad St. Giles's; but by the Help of an Engine, and timely and ready Aſſiſtance, it was extinguiſhed without doing conſiderable Damage.

On Thurſday laſt, as one James Varo, a Helper to his Majeſty's Grooms, was riding a Grey Horſe, called Walker, in Buſhy-Park, which his Majeſty generally uſed to ride a Hunting, the Horſe ſtarted and ran full ſpeed againſt the Paliſades, which are before the Lord Hallifax's Houſe in the ſaid Park, with ſuch Force, before the Rider could ſtop him, that he daſh'd his Brains out, and threw the Rider upon the Iron Spikes, where he hung for a conſiderable Time, before he was releaſed, but received little Damage.

There are Letters from Jamaica, which ſay, that a Ship had been burnt at St. Anne's, on the North Side of that Iſland, but her Name is not mentioned.

Robbery, &c. On Thurſday Morning two Higlers were robb'd coming from Enfield, near the Work Way, by three Foot-pads, who took from them about 3l. 10s.——Yeſterday a Man was committed to Newgate by Juſtice Lambert, for ſtealing a Copper.

MONDAY, Auguſt 2.

On Saturday Morning early, the Lady of Joſhua Denton, Eſq; was ſafely deliver'd of a Daughter, at her Houſe in Groſvenor-ſtreet.

On Saturday the Aſſizes ended at Chelmſford in Eſſex, where four Perſons receiv'd Sentence of Death, viz. two for the Highway and two for Horſe-ſtealing. None were capitally convicted at Hertford.

The ſame Day Mr. Wilkins, Watchmaker, at York in Surrey, examining and making Trial of a Gun, believing it not to be charg'd, ſhot his Daughter, a Girl of ten Years of Age, ſo that her Bowels came out, being torn all to Pieces.

On Saturday one Mr. Philpot, Tide-waiter, going to ſwim in Ward's Pond at Hackney, upon his jumping in, his Feet ſtuck in the Mud, and he was unfortunately drowned.

Stephen Poyntz, Eſq; who ſome Time ſince was appointed Governor to his Grace the Duke of Cumberland, has, for that Purpoſe, allow'd him a Grant of 1000l. per Ann.

Preferments. Mr. Henry Pujalas is appointed Surveyor of Houſes for Weſtminſter, in the room of Mr. Richard Colhen, deceas'd.——His Majeſty has been pleaſed to preſent Dr. George Legh to the Vicarage of Hallifax, void by the Death of the laſt Incumbent.

Deaths. On Friday laſt died at Epſom in Surrey, Mrs. Jane Heather, Relict of Capt. Richard Heather.——On Saturday laſt died Mr. Barnardiſton, an eminent Linnen-draper in Cornhill; as did the Wife of Mr. Legg, a noted Woolen-draper, at the Corner of Birchin-Lane.

Bankrupt. Jeffrey Hopkins, the younger, of Kinwarton in the County of Warwick, Chapman.

TUESDAY, Auguſt 3.

On Sunday in the Afternoon, a Cooper's Son at Black-Wall was drowned in the River as he was waſhing himſelf.

Yeſterday ſix young Watermen row'd for Mr. Dogget's Coat and Badge, from London Bridge to Chelſea, which was won by John Aliſs at Batterſea.

'Tis remarkable, that in three of the Cauſes that were tried at the Aſſizes at Chelmsford, the whole Value of what was conteſted in all of them, did not exceed 12s. 6d. whereas the bare Coſts on both Sides in bringing them to Trial, muſt amount to upwards of 60l.

Extract of a Letter from Glouceſter, dated July 31.

As I came hither Yeſterday, I dined at Frog-Mill, a Place ten Miles off, where laſt Monday, a tragical Accident happen'd. An Inn-keeper of Bunfond, 20 Miles hence, killed a Farmer who lived about five Miles from him, and is now in Goal here; it ſeems they met at the Mill above-ſaid, where the Priſoner was beating a Boy very unmercifully; the Deceaſed, ſeeing it, asked him why he did ſo? He paſſionately replied, he would ſerve him ſo too. Words paſſing between them, the Priſoner beat the Deceaſed with the Handle of his Whip till he begg'd for Mercy, complaining that he was not able to bear the Blows. The Priſoner notwithſtanding did not deſiſt till ſome Time after, when the People took up the Deceaſed and put him to Bed, where he expired in an Hour's Time. The Coroner's Inquest have brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder.

Robberies. Yesterday about Five o'Clock in the Afternoon the Watford Stage Coach and a Gentleman's Chaise were attack'd by one Highwayman on a black Mare on Bushy-Heath, who robb'd the Passengers in the Coach, and the Gentleman in the Chaise of all their Money, Watches, &c. and rode off with the Booty.——On Sunday Evening, a Gentleman was robb'd in Upper Moor-fields, by three Foot-pads, who took from him his Hat, Wig, and 3s.——Yesterday about Twelve o'Clock at Noon, two Coaches were robb'd two Miles beyond Paddington coming to London.

Deaths. Yesterday died at her Habitation in Fleet-street, Mrs. Shepherd, Relict of Mr. Shepherd, formerly a great Druggist on Ludgate-hill.——On Wednesday last died at Gloucester, Mr. Underhill, an eminent and wealthy Merchant.

WEDNESDAY, August 4.

Yesterday Morning a Fire broke out at Ailesbury House in St. John's-square, Clerkenwell, which consumed a great Part of the House and Furniture.

On Monday last a very odd and surprizing Accident happen'd in Leather-Lane, when the Hendon Coach was going out of Town, a Woman who was therein, unwarily putting her Head out of the Coach Door, and a Coal Cart coming by at the same Time, her Head became fasten'd between the Spokes of the Cart Wheel, so that she lost Part of her Ear, and was wounded beside in a most terrible Manner.

The Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, having lately been nominated a Governor of St. Thomas's-Hospital, Sir Gilbert Heathcote, the President, accompanied by a considerable Number of Aldermen, waited upon him, and presented him with the Staff.

Yesterday one Heaton was taken in Custody at Knightsbridge, for putting off counterfeit Money; and being search'd several Utensils for coining were found upon him.

Robberies. One Day last Week, the House of Major Layton in Queen-street, Westminster, was broke open by some Rogues, who carried off Goods and other Things to the Value of 250l.——Last Saturday in the Evening, as Mr. Wort was passing over the Fields by Copenhagen House, a Man in his Shirt, without a Hat, came up to him, pulled out a Pistol, and held it at his Head, and robb'd him of a Guinea, his Watch, Hat, and a Gold-headed Cane.——On Monday Night about Eleven o'Clock, Mr. Fleming, a Haberdasher of Hats in Fenchurch-street, was attack'd by two Street-Robbers in Mincing-Lane, who took from him about 20s. and made several Offers at his Watch, but the String breaking, they could not get it out; however, they beat him in a very barbarous Manner.——The same Evening, Dr. Bernard Lynch, of Stanmore, and a Gentlewoman in a Chaise along with him, were attack'd by two Highwaymen, between Harrow on the Hill and Stanmore, they robb'd the Doctor of his Watch and all his Money.——On Sunday Night last two Gentlemen were robb'd on Putney-Common, by two Highwaymen well mounted.——Yesterday in the Afternoon two Gentlemen were robb'd near Paddington, as they were coming to London, by a single Highwayman.

On Tuesday last there was another Proof of Ordnance in the Warren at Woolwich, when 71 Cannons were try'd; none burst, and there was but one condemn'd as being honeycomb'd as they call it; we hear it will be the last Proof that will be made this Summer.

The Lady of Samuel Sandys, Esq; Member of Parliament for Worcester, is safely deliver'd of a Daughter.

The Beginning of next Week a fine new Ship of 500 Tons will be launch'd from Mr. Brunsdon's Dock at Deptford, for the Service of the East-India Company.

On Monday in the Afternoon a Man dropt down dead suddenly at the Flower-Pot Alehouse in Bishopsgate-street; a Surgeon was immediately sent for to bleed him, but without any Success.

Extract of a Letter from Cadiz dated July 24. N. S.

The Azogues for Vera Cruz are getting ready with all Expedition; and notwithstanding what has been practised here, there are People who have Courage to venture again, and those Ships will go full, and depart from hence before the Middle of next Month. The Register for the Havanna, called the N. S. del Rosario y San Antonio, Capt. Don Antonio de Roxas, a Ship of 30 Guns, Men answerable, hurries all he can, in order to go under their Convoy. It is strongly reported, that an Order is signed for the Delivery of the Goods, which came by last Azogues upon a regular Indulto of 5 per Cent. and that it is likewise ordered to take 5 per Cent. About 32,000 Pieces of Eight unregister'd, had been seized on board the Almirante, and were ordered to be sent to Seville. At Cadiz they were making great Preparations for the Reception of the British Fleet, commanded by Sir Charles Wager, and were getting the Troops there in Order, which were designed for Italy. At Barcelona the 29th past the like Orders were arrived. From Genoa of the 31st past N. S. they write, that the 4000 Imperial Troops were arriv'd there, and Preparations were making for transporting them to the Island of Corsica, to help the Forces of the Republick to reduce the Inhabitants to their Obedience. And, From Leghorn the 28th 'tis written, that the Account they had received of the Duchess of Parma's Delivery was so far from being confirmed, that some People disputed the Truth of her being with Child. The Drake Sloop of War, Capt. Dundass, from Lisbon, was arrived at Legborn.

Robbery, &c. Mr. Robert Carrol, a noted and wealthy Hatter, who had been with his Wife and Children at Hamstead-Fair on Tuesday in the Afternoon, at his Return home to Westminster was attack'd by two Foot-pads, one in a Soldier's Dress, the other in a Fustian Frock, who robb'd him of about three Pounds Value in Money and Rings, and then made off.——Last Tuesday Evening a Bailiff was committed to the Gatehouse, Westminster, by Justice De Veil, for assaulting several Persons. He had three Warrants served upon him in one Day for divers Offences.

Preferment. —— Dobson, Gent. is made Ensign of an Independent Company of Invalids in Garrison at Portsmouth, in the room of James Stevens, who is promoted to a Captain Lieutenant's Commission in the said Regiment.

Marriage. Justice Railton, above 80 Years of Age, was lately married to a young Gentlewoman of about 22, with whom he had a handsome Fortune, and has settled 600l. on her. And about the same Time Mr. Wilkinson, Minister of the Savoy, married the Sister of the above Gentlewoman, with whom he had 1000l.

Shipping. By a Letter from Chester we have Advice, that a Ship bound from Dublin to that Place was lost upon coming over the Bar there.——The Charming Peggy, Capt. Richardson, lately mentioned to have been taken near Jamaica by a Spanish Guarda Costa, arrived at Jamaica the 26th of May, and 'twas expected might sail for London in June last.——Captain Goldsborough, in his Voyage from Buenos Ayres, in the Latitude of 11 North, fell in with the Prince William, Capt. Bresford, and the Lethieullier, Capt. Sheppard, from Bombay; the Bridgwater, Capt. Williamson, and the Mary, late Capt. Holden, from Fort St. George; which Ships passed off the Cape from the Duke of York; all which Ships are hourly expected.

His Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, sets out next Week for Holyhead, in order to imbark for that Kingdom, and take upon him the said Government.

We hear that on Tuesday next the City Regiments of Militia will begin to march out; and that the Blue will be the first.

Yesterday there was a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships order'd the Lyne Man of War, Capt. Marwood Commander, who has been cruizing on the Coast of New-England for a considerable Time, to sail forthwith for Jamaica.

The same Morning several Persons were taken in by a Gang of Sharpers in Fleet street, as they were going to Newgate-Market, by playing at Dice at a Barrow; the Sharpers carried off a great deal of Money, and the Persons instead of going to Market, were forc'd to return home empty.

Letters from most of the great Towns and Boroughs in the Kingdom, are full of the noble Acts of Charity, and generous Benevolence of the Generality of People of Fortune, who seem to contend who shall be the most liberal in relieving the distressed Sufferers of Blandford, Tiverton, &c. 'Tis something remarkable, but 'tis recorded in our Chronicles, that about 100 Years ago the Town of Tiverton suffer'd the same deplorable Fate by Fire, as it did likewise 100 Years before that.

Robbery. On Sunday Night last as Mr. John Brown, a Surgeon, was returning home to his Lodgings, he was attack'd by two Street-Robbers in Miles's-Lane, who took from him 25s. a Case of Instruments, and the Key of his Closet Door, and made off undiscover'd.

FOREIGN NEWS.

NAPLES, July 17. On the 9th Instant in the Night, a slight Shock of an Earthquake was felt here, as it was also in the Provinces of Labourt, and in the Pouille, but without doing any considerable Damage.

Hague, August 7. N. S. Most People here imagine, that the Emperor's Remarks upon the Ultimatum of this State, being addressed to the Earl of Chesterfield, his Excellency will once more have the Trouble of being Mediator between Count Sinzendorff and their High Mightinesses Deputies; and consequently, that all Matters in Difference will soon be adjusted. The States of Holland will not adjourn their Meeting this Week; nor is it indeed expected, till they have settled (so far as depends on them) the Affair of the Accession to the Treaty of Vienna: For at present every Thing seems to invite them to it; and they would perhaps have done it before now, if they had not heard of the Conclusion of a new Treaty of Alliance between the Emperor, the Empire, England, and Spain, wherein their High Mightinesses are not named as Contracting Parties, as they were in the former. This Alliance, we are told, was signed at Vienna the 22d of July last, and is calculated for confirming the Peace and Tranquillity of Europe, and for settling the same upon a better Foot, than has been done since the Treaty of Westphalia; for they say it puts the last Hand to all the Negociations that have amused Europe for so many Years past: It comprehends, if we are rightly inform'd, all that is Essential in the Treaties of London, Seville, and Vienna; and adjusts the Clashing Interests of the respective Powers. We are assured, that the Great Duke of Tuscany will enter into this Treaty; and that several other Powers will be invited to do the like.

Paris, August 11. One of our Ships from China brings Advice of an Earthquake at Pekin in China the 30th of September, which lasted near four Minutes with such Violence, that the principal Edifices were shook in Pieces: The magnificent Palace of Haytien, situate in the Country a small Distance from Pekin, and a Palace of Pleasure of the Emperors of China, and that of the 17th Brother of the Emperor, were overturned: The fine Church of the Portuguese Jesuits, that of the French Jesuits, and the Convent of the Franciscans, were almost totally destroyed. The same Day there was a second Shock, followed by others less violent, which lasted almost to the 2d of October in the Morning, and the Theanlo, or Yellow River, and several others, broke their Banks, overflowed the Country, and laid under Water the Provinces of Canton, Nankin, Honan, and Pitchly, where the Inhabitants of several large Towns were drowned, so that above 100,000 Souls perished by the Ruins of the Houses and Inundations.
